

Parent Talks

Drop-In Sessions to Chat about Parenting

Encompass is excited to present Parent Talks, informal sessions at local Snoqualmie Valley libraries where caregivers can drop in to chat about parenting and raising young children.

Each month, the facilitator will have tips and information on a relevant topic, like positive discipline, screen time, picky eating, or executive functioning skills. Stop by to learn, share, and get to know fellow parents who are going through the same things as you and your family.

Children are welcome and no preregistration is required—join us for one or all sessions and let's talk! See the schedule below for more details.

Questions? Please contact Sandra "Sam" Sinanan at 425.888.2777 ext. 1226 or sandra.sinanan@encompassnw.org.
