

Traditionally Recognized Good Toys for Toddlers

- Boxes – any size
- Blocks
- Buckets
- Balls
- Wooden puzzles
- Shape sorters
- Pegboards
- Activity boxes
- Lacing beads
- Musical instruments (non-electronic)
- Push/pull toys
- Ride-on toys
- Chalk/chalkboard
- Art supplies
- Fisher Price barn – with no sound
- Toy vehicles
- Toy tools
- Play figures
- Pounding sets
- Puppets
- Toy food/dishes
- Baby doll and accessories
- Stuffed animals
- Books – non-musical/no flashing lights
- Blanket/chairs/scarves
- Laundry basket
- Purses/zip bags

Look for simple, battery-free toys – no music, no flashing lights

Adapted from The Power of Play: Effective Play-Based Therapy and Early Intervention by Cari Ebert, MS, CCC-SLP.